Circle of Recovery, Inc. recognizes the need for a training system that provides courses to assist providers in effectively managing individuals who present with chemical dependency problems. Providers of chemical dependency services require knowledge and skills necessary to provide competent, quality-based substance abuse treatment services. It is our aim to provide opportunities for these Social workers, Professional Counselors, other human service professionals and paraprofessionals to receive up-to-date, state-of-the-art education, and training in addiction treatment service delivery.

The Basic Substance Abuse Counselor course is designed for those working towards addiction counselor certification.
